Moves towards an Anticolonial Academy-
Exploring Post and Decolonial Epistemic Options

Kick-off event

Date: 28 September 2018
Time: 15.00 – 17.00
Location: The Pufendorf Institute for Advanced Studies – Classicum, Biskopsgatan 3 Lund

The panel is the inauguration of the Advanced Study Group (ASG) “Moves towards an anticolonial academy - Exploring post and decolonial epistemic options”.

For this occasion we have invited three guest panelists - from different Swedish universities - who work from postcolonial and/or decolonial perspectives in different fields.

Guest Panelists

- Diana Mulinari, Professor, Lund University
- Adrian Groglopo, Senior Lecturer, University of Gothenburg
- Mahmoud Keshavarz, Post-Doctoral Researcher, Uppsala University

The purpose of this ASG is to collectively navigate and explore the terrain of postcolonial and decolonial thinking. The members of this ASG are a collective of like-minded scholars from three different faculties (Social Science, Humanities and Juridicum), independent research centers (LUCSUS) and affiliated institutions (Raoul Wallenberg Institute) who share interest in post/decolonial epistemologies and who have a political commitment to the idea of an anti-colonial university: academic research and teaching that does not reproduce colonial thinking and action.
