Complexities of Integration Studies

9TH OF OCTOBER 09 .00 – 12.00 | THE PUFENDORF IAS, BISKOPSGATAN 3, LUND

This half-day seminar is digital and takes place on ZOOM only. It addresses different aspects of the study of integration with primary focus on Sweden. It is presented by the Pufendorf IAS’s 2019-2020 Advanced Study Group DeMIIS (Deconstructing Measures of Immigrant Integration in Sweden).

9.00 Welcome

9.05 Can you measure integration? – Anna Axmon (EPI@Lund, Division of Occupational and Environmental Medicine, Lund University)

9.25 Integration as a way of normalizing – Tabitha Wright Nielsen (School of Social Work, Lund University)

9.45 To feel at home: Religious, ethnic and national belonging for migrants to Sweden from the Middle East – Andreas Westergren (Centre for Theology and Religious Studies, Lund University)

10.05 Integration as an opportunity creation process among immigrant entrepreneurs in Sweden – Quang Evansluong (The Gothenburg Research Institute, Gothenburg University)

10.25 Break

10.40 Obligation to pay taxes and right to social welfare for undocumented immigrants – Ellika Sevelin (Department of Law, Lund University)

11.00 The other side of the integration coin: Perspectives from immigrants and their children – Dalia Abdelhady (Department of Sociology, Lund University)

11.20 Panel discussion

12.00 End

TO JOIN THE SEMINAR ON ZOOM, PLEASE REGISTER FOR THE EVENT BEFOREHAND AT WWW.PI.LU.SE